

Dear Traveler:

A friend who recently visited St. Petersburg, Russia couldn't wait to tell me about the air of excitement she found there. Some of the city's most beloved attractions—including the ornate Church of Savior on the Spilled

Blood—have been exquisitely renovated. Now is the best time to visit, she said, as the city is gearing up for its tricentennial celebration in 2003.

Of course, the world-renowned Hermitage museum is reason enough to visit St. Petersburg. Here, you'll find more than three million art objects, including 26 Rembrandts, 60 Matisse's, and entire galleries of Impressionists.

This treasure trove of art collected by the Czars is a big part of why Grand Circle's Scandinavian Capitals & St. Petersburg is our most popular CruiseTour ever. But there's more—a lot more—that explains why this 16-day CruiseTour has sold out four years in a row! Here's what else you'll enjoy:

- See St. Petersburg, Stockholm, Helsinki, Copenhagen, Berlin, and the medieval jewel of Tallinn, Estonia.
- Board the four-star Norwegian Dream and unpack just once as you sail from city to city.
- Enjoy all ship amenities, including Norwegian's Freestyle Cruising with resort-casual dress at all times, longer dining room hours, open seating, and meals cooked to order.

No wonder Scandinavian Capitals & St. Petersburg is an annual sellout, especially when you consider that you'll also receive two FREE days in London and round-trip airfare from your choice of three East Coast cities. Plus, you'll save up to $1126 per couple off the cruise line's published fares!

Don't miss the excitement of St. Petersburg's renaissance—or the opportunity to see these Scandinavian gems on Grand Circle's most popular CruiseTour ever. Book your reservation now by calling our Travel Counselors today, toll-free 1-800-221-2610.
